Thursday, August 06, 2009	http://www.seether.com/	 This is the bands “Seether”’s site. What I liked about this site Was the use of vintage colours and the scratched up look that is a constant throughout the site.
Thursday, August 06, 2009	http://bfish.free.fr/	 This is the Bfish site designed by a unnamed freelance designer in

		France. The only thing that I liked about this site was the loading that used a drop down effect.
Thursday, August 06, 2009	http://www.leoburnett.ca/FLASH/index.htm	 This is the Site of Flash Designer Leo Burnett. This was the best site that I have encountered so far. It was completely interactive although the scribble effect grew annoying after a time.

<http://www.sofake.com/>

This is the SoFake site. This was a fairly simple a site that uses a Zoom effect to switch from page to page.

<http://www.entranced.se/>

The Entranced site. I liked the Navigation but the site lacked in content.
